Parents' Evening

On Thursday 3rd we held the Parents' Evening for Senior School and AS students. On Friday 4th, it was the turn of the GCSE and A2 students. Parents had the opportunity to meet with their child's subject teachers and with the Principal. If you were unable to attend this week and would like to discuss your child's progress by phone, please contact the College.

Basketball tournament finals:

Congratulations to King House for their victory against Obama House in the finals and congratulations to Mehul Sanghani on his Most Valuable Player award. It was a close match and the whole tournament has been a very popular lunch time occurrence amongst both staff and students.

Inter-house debating competition begun

This week we held our first inter-house debates. The topic was the ever controversial 'Should cannabis be legalised?' First, Obama went up against Mandela, and then Gandhi went up against King. The debates were all very well prepared and highly enthusiastic and drew a big audience. The winners were Obama and King House.
